We have not seen any of the proceedings had at the Convention, in Grafton, tion to grievances against the Baltimore road, save a short report in the Fairmont Vedette, from which we can scarcely gather more than that the Convention met and adjourned. The meet-ing does not seem to have been largely attended. Delegates were present from Piedmont, Rowlesburg, Cranberry Summit, Grafton, West Union and Fairmont. J. N. Boyd was Chairman, and L. B. Perry, Secretary. From the re port in the Vedette, we make the follow-

The chairman stated the object of the meeting to be to secure concert of ac-tion on the part of all interested in obsining relief from the burdens im taining relief from the burdens impos-ed by the Railroad Company. He stat-ed that the preparation of an elaborate document, in the form of a memorial to the Legislature, setting forth the griev-ances complained of by the people along the line of the Road, and asking legislative action on the subject, was one suggestion proposed by the Fair-mont merchants. Another was to form a combination of merchants to form a combination of merchants to counteract the lobbying influence of the Radical party. Others think that the Radical party. H. G. Davis, of Peidmont, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to inquire into the grievances, real or supposed, that may be felt by the citizens along the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and to confer with the officers of the road with a view to their correction, or to take such action as they may think best in the case.

Mr. McCormick offered as an amendment, that, if there be any real grievy Rives P ment, that, if there be any real griev-neces which the officers of the road re-fuse or fail to redress, then the com-mittee appointed shall bring the same to the attention of the next Legislature. The amendment was lost, and the or anal resolution adopted.
